

As a traveller, I take trips and such to various cities...Indianapolis and St. Louis at times, and its a great help to be able to tell what these cities are experiencing as I get closer, so I know what to expect. Don't let the XM Instant Traffic and Weather Channels get turned off, nor hinder in any way their growth. Its a great service they provide, and I think that they should be allowed to continue.